About the Legal Action Center: They provide legal technical assistance and educational counseling for agencies providing treatment, health care and social services to chemically dependent individuals, and people with HIV/AIDS and their families. The Center's staff attorneys have expertise in working with both private and public treatment providers.

The Legal Action Center publishes newsletters and books that assist the treatment communities in keeping up to date on legal, legislative, and policy developments. Requests for information on these publications may be addressed to the business office.

To sign up for news alerts or to receive the "Washington Weekly Roundup" -- free of charge -- e-mail wmurray@lac-dc.org. To read the feature story of the month or to see current alerts, please visit the "News and Alerts" section of their web site www.lac.org

To purchase any of their products, please visit the "Publications and Videos" section of their web site.

About the National Anti-Discrimination Project: The National Anti-Discrimination Project will assist individuals in recovery from alcoholism and drug dependency and those living with HIV who face discrimination in employment, housing, health care, public benefits and other areas. The project will provide critically needed legal representation, advice and support to organizations and attorneys around the country. The project will provide a range of services. The Legal Action Center will represent individuals who have suffered discrimination, and serve as co-counsel with other attorneys pursuing cases nationwide. The Project will also provide legal advice and assistance to attorneys and organizations that help recovering individuals, draft model papers and train lawyers and advocacy organizations on anti-discrimination standards.
